GRANITE CITY — A truck load of stolen color televisions — along with a few video cassette representation by combined police agencies Thursday might and early Friday.
Four local residents were caught in the dragnet of circumstances surrounding the stolen merchandise, Police Chief Don Knight said.
Charged in Class II felony warrants charging theft by possession were:

- Henry Murphy, 37, of the 1200 block of Murphy Lane, Chouteau Island, 46, of the 3700 block of Franklin Avenue, owner of the El Gato tavern in downtown Granite City; and

- Dana Lee Moore, 37, of the 2000 block of Pontoon Road, a well-known local beautician.
Charged in a misdemeanor charge of theft by possession Joseph P. Becerra, 49, of the 2400 block of Adams Street.

Moon-suited men mop up mud

GRANITE CITY — Men dressed in "moon sulta," accuming up mind along the south side of Edwardsville Road near the Granite City Steel blast furnace entrance, caused an understandable traffic jam Thursday morning.

The crew, from Heritage Environmental Services of St. Louis, was cleaning up a liquid spill that was "mostly rain weter," according to Bob. He said the crew is under contract to Granite City Steel.

A tanker truck blocked the right-hand lane and the crew's attire turned more than a few motorists' heads as they passed by the area.

Maxwell said a Granite City with a "small amount" of light oil that had collected on a concrete containment below an intermediate light oil tank when a hose broke.

The water was being pumped into an intermediate sump before being fed into a recycling system. The hose broke at 11:48 a.m., spilling approximately 20 to 30 gallons of the water-and-oil mixture onto the ground.

Only about three gallons of the mixture got to the actual road, Maxwell said, He said intermediate the second of the second of the mixture got to the actual road, Maxwell said, Heritage crew was in full-protection gear at a nearby sump at the blast furnace performing some routine work. The crew saw the hose break, Maxwell said, and the spill.

The spilling said the spill never presented a health heard and that no injuries were reported as a result of the spill.

County AIDS program loses funding

GRANITE CITY — The only public pro-gram in Madison County for AIDS preven-tion and testing has lost federal funding. It has lost funding because of a change in government policy, said a spokesman for the llinois bepartment of Public Health.

Illinois Department of Public Health.

Effective Dec. 31, the Madison County ADS Prevention Program, operated by Coordinated Youth Services of Grantic City, lost its federal funding because the government decided to channel its AIDS funding from now on through programs that deal with other sexually transmitted diseases in addition to AIDS.

The Madison County program dealt only with AIDS (acquired immune deficiency syndrome).

budget, said Donna Daisy, executive director of Coordinated Youth. Daisy said Coordinated Youth had a three-part AIDS program, two parts of which could be affected by the loss of the federal could be affected by the loss of the federal money:

• Education of the community about how AIDS is contracted — particularly of highrisk segments of the community, such as homosexuals and intravenous drug users.

• AIDS counseling and testing.
• Referral of those infected with the virus that causes AIDS to agencies offering medical and legal services. The affected by the too of the federal money, Daisy said.

But she said Coordinated Youth would try to continue offering the other services.
In the 18 months of the program's existence, it has counseled and tested about 50 people, and it has helped about 50 people who have AIDS.

Chet Kelly is with the Illinois Department of Public Health's AIDS Activity Section, which distributes federal AIDS money in Illinois for the U.S. Centers for Disease Control. Kelly said the Madison County AIDS program would continue to get state funding factors of the Section of the Sectio some of its services on a case-by-case basis.

Kelly said most counties have health departments with sexually transmitted discuss (STD) clinics. Madison County was one of only about 25 counties without a county health department. There are 102 counties in Illinois.

He said the state was in the process of looking for an agency in Madison County that offers a preventive program for all STDs. The agency would be eligible for the federal money that Coordinated Youth lost.

Seniors lead grapplers past Parkway West

Executive sports editor

Time flies when you're having fun.

Although it seems like the season just started, regional competition is less than two weeks away for the Warrior wrestling team. But coach Mike Garland feels his team is right on schedule.

We would be, 'be said after Thursday's 31:23 win over Parkway West. "I didn't think we would be doing this well with all the sophomores But they've done a great job."

The Warriors took a 10-8 dual meet record into Saturday's home meet against Collinsville, Jerseyon Thursday before Garland's two most consistent seniors, 171-pounder Brad Massey and 188-pounder Larry Hahne, both pinned their opponents to clinch the match.

"Parkway West has some really strong kids."

Garland said. "They all came out and went at it hard right fromt the opening whistle. Those are the types of wrestlers who can make you look bad. "I was pretty pleased with how we performed against Wood River (a, 52.14 win on Wednesday). But maybe the kits were a little too pleased. We didn't have the same intensity Thursday." Sophomore Ryan King leads the Warreis row with 23 wins, 19 of them at 163 pounds, Harding in next Close behind him is sophomore 135-pounder Jerry Heubschman, who improved to 20-9-1 Thursday. Senior 125-pounder Todd Hutchison is 19-11 whyle Massey is 18-7 with 10 pins.

The Warriors' other senior, Chris Hankins, won't wrestle again this year. The back mjury which sidelined him right before the Höldlay Tournament will keep him out the rest of the year. "Chris has never had a full year," said Garland. "So I was almost expecting it. It's a shame because this is his senior year and it would have been nice for him to be able to finish."

logic, Jones faced charges of racism.

"Maybe I'm naive, but I thought we had moved beyond racism," one hand-wringing liberal muttered on a recent radio sports call-in show. "Gosh, I don't know anything about quotas or politics," poor-mouthed his partner. "I'm just a sports nut who wants to,see a stadium built."
Both voices on the radio quickly hopped into their cars and motored to homes in the suburbs.
It should be pointed out that Jones, like nearly half of the St.
Louis population, is black-use, like probably better than half the population of the politicians involved in all of this, is a certifiable nitwit.
The business of slapping some

The business of slapping some sort of agreement together on a new stadium has been going on for something like a year. While Jones can put together a pretty overwhelming argument for being dumber than a box of rocks, he can't plead ignorance to what was going on.

There has been plenty of time for backroom squabbling about quotas, Jones says 15 percent is unacceptable. He's right. He's also right in the sales right in the sales right in the project aren't going to go a buck beyond that without a hammer being held over their heads. And Jones is holding the hammer.

But why wait until now to start pounding on heads? Where was Jones last summer? Last fall?

Last month?

There was a meeting scheduled Friday to try to piece the stadium/ convention' center deal Back together. Jones said he couldn't make it because he wasn't invited in time. He had made other plans, although he later indicated he might show up.

Because of this snag, the city's end of what seemed to be a done deal on a new stadium was unrav-eling faster than a ball of string dropped from the top of the Gate-way Arch.

Jones isn't wrong to use him

ay Arch.

Jones isn't wrong to use his uscle as comptroller to get a gger chunk of the pie for minority businesses. He was wrong not to get involved earlier. And he's even more wrong not to take his feet ou of his mouth now and jump of board a project that can't affort any further delays. (Dennis Barnidge is a sport columnist for the Suburban Jour
